The Festival will strive to have a good variety of food for the festival goers.

FOOD TRUCK VENDOR WILL:

- Pay a fee of $200 for the right to be a vendor at the two-day event. Fee must accompany application.
- Provide quality food products and a food truck that is staffed by clean, professional and courteous personnel.
- Provide menu of items outlined on this application; any changes to the menu must be approved by the Tiny Home Festival committee. This will eliminate duplication of too many products and ensure a successful day for everyone.
- Please feature “small plate” type items on your menu so guests are able to sample multiple items from different vendors.
- Vendors MAY NOT sell any type of beverages.
- No Vendors may sell outside of festival grounds.
- NO PETS are permitted on the festival grounds.
- Outside alcohol is not permitted onsite.
- You must be covered by $100,000 of recovery liability insurance. You must provide an original copy of your certificate of insurance policy with Outer Banks Chamber of Commerce named as an additional insured for our files. Your application is not complete without this certificate of insurance. You will not be allowed to set up if this certification is not received.
- Please check and include one of the following:
 - I am a Dare County Concession and have a current permit from the Dare County Health Department (copy attached).
 - I am a Dare County Concession but DO NOT have a current Food truck permit from the Dare County Health Department. I have applied for and received a Temporary Food Establishment Permit that is required (copy attached).
 - I am an out of county concession. Attached is a copy of my concession permit and inspection report.
- Power needs:
 - I am a self-contained Food Truck and DO NOT require any power other than my own.
